Morning Worship

2nd May 2010

Speaker: Rev. Damien Boyle

'He took bread, gave thanks and broke it, and gave it to them saying, "This is my body given for you; do this in remembrance of Me"'

Luke 22 v 19

WELCOME

We give you all a warm welcome to our worship today. We invite all who know and love the Lord Jesus Christ to join us in the Lord's Supper. Today let us remember the price that the Lord Jesus paid for the salvation of His people. But let us not forget that He is alive and meets us here in all His risen power.

If you want to become one of the nearly 24,000 licensed taxi drivers in London, get ready to do a lot of studying. The only way to get behind the wheel is to master The Blue Book, the single manual for a course that takes between 2 and 4 years to complete. It may take only a few minutes for the driver of a traditional black cab to take you from one point to another—but knowing how to get there required years of purposeful study.

The apostle Paul reminded young Timothy of the importance of knowing God's Word (2 Timothy 3:14-17) and of carefully and diligently carrying out his ministry of teaching others (2:15). The goal of such teaching is not just learning, but Christ like living. Paul wrote, "Flee also youthful lusts; but pursue righteousness, faith, love, peace with those who call on the Lord out of a pure heart. But avoid foolish and ignorant disputes, knowing that they generate strife" (vv.22-23).

Today, and every day, let's make time to study God's Word with diligence and purpose. And let's take time to pray that what we learn will result in God-honouring behaviour that points others to Christ. It does little good to know the best route to follow if we never get on the road.

RETIREMENT SERVICE – REV. C. WRIGHT

Anyone who would like to attend the retirement service for Rev. Clifford Wright in Alexandra Presbyterian Church on Sunday, 16th May are asked to let the Rev. Boyle know as soon as possible. This is to enable numbers to be passed on for catering purposes to the folk there, and also if enough of our folk are going, a minibus could be organised.

ANNUAL P.W. TRIP

Ladies attending the P.W. Trip are reminded that all monies should be paid to either Mary Walsh (Clonduff) or Eleanor McMurray (Hilltown) today, Sunday 2nd May at the latest.

Youth Fellowship Service.

The Youth Fellowship Service will be tonight at 6.30 pm.

The young people will be taking part in this service and the guest speaker will be Mr Jeff Blue from Mourne. Everyone will be very welcome, so please plan to attend to show your support and give encouragement to the leaders and the young people.
